Allowance

2. Claims 1-30 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the instant invention identifies contours in an image and defects such as scratches in an image of a fiber end. Upon acquisition of an image, the instant invention extracts features from the image and creates chains from localized subset of the features. After forming the chains, the instant invention computes the values of one or more hash functions for contour segments of at least one of the chains so as to reduce the number of contour candidates the need to be considered, and using the values for the contour segments, the instant invention identifies candidate contour segments for joining, and then joins selected contour segments to form joined contour segments.

The instant invention further extracts features from an image of a fiber end using oriented filters, and forms chains from localized subset of the features 3x3 connectivity rules. After forming the chains, the instant invention constructs a spatial hash table for contour segments using contour segment endpoints of at least one of the chains, and using the spatial hash table, the instant invention identifies candidate contour segments for joining, and then joins selected contour segments to form identified scratch defects. These features in combination with all of the other elements of the claims are not disclosed or fairly suggested by any of the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
